Local Ladies Are Winners in Contest At Wilson's Store

At the Harvest Festival flower arrangement contest sponsored at Wilson's store in Greenfield last week Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Mrs. Norman Nims and Mrs. Walter Bailey of the Northfield Garden club won first and second prizes, respectively, in the flower arrangement class.

Mrs. Nims exhibited a beautiful arrangement of roses in a vase and Mrs. Bailey's entry was of Bells of Ireland and dahlias.

Mrs. Harwood Cummings of the Greenfield Garden club won the first award in the dried flower class. There were 31 arrangements entered by the clubs of Greenfield, Northfield, Millers Falls, Deerfield and South Deerfield.

Film Is Shown at Garden Club Meet

The Garden club members saw a film entitled "The Promise of Spring," at the meeting Monday evening to start off their project of a sale of spring bulbs. Members purchased bulbs at the meeting but they may be purchased by anyone desiring them at the home of Mrs. Walter Bailey in East Northfield. These are extra nice imported Dutch bulbs and the price is low for the quality sold.

Varieties include paper-white narcissus, King Alfred daffodils, five varieties of tulips and three colors of hyacinths.

Proceeds of the sale will go to the treasury of the club and of course it is hoped that this new project will help to make Northfield more beautiful next spring.

Mrs. Raymond Parenteau, president, presided at Monday evening's meeting and gave reports on the various summer activities of members, including visits to State Federation meetings, and to other clubs and participation in three area flower shows.

There was a discussion of the traffic island plantings and of the lighting of the war memorial on the school grounds.

Two tickets for the Massachusetts Horticultural Harvest and chrysanthemum show in Boston Oct. 17 to 20 are available by calling Mrs. Parenteau.

Girl Scouts Meet

The Girl Scouts met on Monday at the Little House with Gretchen Hammond's patrol in charge of the opening exercises. The second glass girls went out and collected seed pods. The girls will meet at the Little House Oct. 6 at 1 o'clock to go to take part in the United Fund parade in Greenfield. Refreshments were served by Carol Lombard's patrol. Leaders were Mrs. Marshall Lanphear, Mrs. Harvey Hathaway, Mrs. Robert Johnson and Mrs. Harold Bigelow, Jr.—Susan Leonard, scribe.

REGIONAL SCHOOL COMMITTEE MEET

At the meeting of the Pioneer Valley regional school committee last week the vote was taken to expend a total of about $4,450 for furnishings for the teachers' lounge, the lobby and the living-dining room areas to be used for the domestic science department. This will include sofas, tables, chairs, lamps and other minor items.

The way to spend the $5,000 contract allowance for landscaping was discussed and tabled for action at this week's meeting.

Work is being pushed as rapidly as possible each day bringing the completion nearer. It was reported that a month will see the completion of the electrical work.

The interscholastic sports program will begin with basketball for which practice will begin as soon as the gymnasium is completed. Soccer, football and girls' volleyball have not been scheduled because of the late start of school and the unfinished condition of the playing fields.

Last evening an informal reception was held for the entire school personnel for a short get-acquainted session at the school at the school cafeteria.

Woods Closed

An announcement is made by our fire chief that the woodlands are closed to anyone and that no permits will be granted for an outdoor fire of any sort. This by order of Governor Furcolo because of the serious fire hazard throughout the state. Although state recreation areas are closed to sportsmen, fishermen will be permitted to fish from piers, boats and wharves that can be reached without passing through closed woods.

Also there has been another change in the phone number of our forest fire warden, Howard E. Williams. It has been changed back to the former number, 961, and is correct in the new 1957 issue of the telephone directory.

'Sing and Bring' Club Marks Anniversary Over WHAI

A year ago this week the Sing and Bring club radio program of the Community Bible church in Northfield Farms presented its first broadcast on station WHAI Saturday, Oct. 6, 10:05 to 10:30 a.m.

Miss June Brown and Mrs. Hazel Marcy direct the program as Aunt Jane and Aunt Hazel and three months ago Richard Griffin came to assist them in the program as Uncle Dick.

The Sing and Bring club is made up of a group of boys, girls and young people who seek to proclaim a Christian witness in word and song.

For several months they have been invited to hold a radio rally in different churches of the area. Some of the churches are as follows: Advent Christian church of S. Vernon, North Leverett Baptist church, Turners Falls Baptist church, Christian Missionary Alliance church of Greenfield, West Halifax Community Baptist church, West Halifax, Vt., and on Oct. 27 at the Moores Corner Congregational church, Moores Corner they will hold another radio rally. At the radio rally each month they invite and use talent from the church where they are visiting.

The Sing and Bring club extends an invitation to boys and girls in the different churches, Good News clubs and Bible clubs of the area to come and participate on the broadcast at any time. The tape recording for the program is taped each Friday afternoon after school at the Community Bible church, Northfield Farms.

There is a Bible reading contest carried on each month to encourage boys and girls and young people to read their Bible. The rules of the contest are as follows: one point for each chapter read, two points for each chapter read to a parent, three points for each chapter read to both parents. The number of points received is sent into Sing and Bring club time, Box 138, Northfield, Mass., or phoned in to 713, Northfield. The winner of the Bible reading contest is invited to the Sing and Bring club to be interviewed and presented with a Bible. The second highest will also be invited to receive his reward of a zipper New Testament. This contest is open to all boys, girls and young people regardless of their faith or church denomination.

Aunt June, Aunt Hazel and Uncle Dick of the broadcast wish to express their appreciation to all who have helped to make this broadcast each week possible.

Miss Mildred Orr has returned to Northfield but instead of going into her Pine street home she will stay at The Northfield Hotel.

Special Announcement of the Northfield Congregational Church

Beginning this next Sunday, Oct. 6, and continuing indefinitely, children of the first, second and third grades of church attending families will be cared for during the hour of public worship. Differing in one detail from the announcement made in last Sunday's calendar, these children will come to worship with their parents in the sanctuary until the second hymn is sung. At that time, they will go to the rear of the church where a member of the 20-40 Couples' club, assisted by students from the Northfield School for Girls, will be waiting to take them to the room which was formerly the church parlor.

There they will be supervised in play, games and crafts until the worship service is concluded. It is hoped that this new service will encourage even more younger families to attend church every Sunday. Mrs. John Trumbull, secretary of the 20-40 Couples club, is directing this program. Mrs. Julian Barber will be supervising the children on this next Sunday.

Miss Sally Field Is Saturday Bride Of Richard Lindgren

In the Russell Sage chapel at the Northfield School for Girls Saturday afternoon, (Sept. 21) Miss Sally Field, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Farnham Field, became the bride of Richard Paul Lindgren, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Paul Lingren of Holden, Mass. A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents in Northfield.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white peau de soie dress with a chapel length train. Her only adornment was a pin worn by all the Field brides for generations. Her finger-tip length veil was attached to a Juliet cap of point de venise lace. She carried a bouquet of roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. Philip B. Kesseli of Holden was her matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Paula Lindgren, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Penelope Field of Mattapoisett and Miss Pauline Todd of Lincoln, both cousins of the bride. Another cousin, Mrs. Peter W. Duff, of New Bedford had charge of the guest book. The bridesmaids all wore floor-length dresses of changeable green taffeta and flowers for head bands, carrying matching bouquets of chrysanthemums.

Philip Kesseli was Mr. Lindgren's best man and the ushers were Horace F. Field III and Charles F. Field, both brothers of the bride, 2nd Lt. Bruce Louder of North Carolina and 2nd Lt. Bradford Crockett of Worcester.

WCTU Meeting

The Women's Christian Temperance Union met Monday afternoon at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Arthur J. Green. Mrs. Green, president, presided. Reports from the officers were heard. Mrs. Gertrude Whitney, secretary, paid tribute to the late Mrs. Minnie J. Morgan for her industry and zeal in the temperance movement up to the time of her death on August 12 in her 91st year. She was president of the Franklin County branch of the state Women's Temperance Union.

The chaplain, Mrs. Grace Cornell, gave an interesting resume of the outstanding workers for temperance. The following were named as a nominating committee to report at the annual meeting to be held Oct. 23: Mrs. Lula Carey, Mrs. Gertrude Whitney and Mrs. Effie Green. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Gertrude C. Whitney.

On Monday a son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rikert, grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. Emory Rikerts.

Sept. 30 a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. John C. Pettengill; granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Gillespie. Mrs. Pettengill was the former Carol Gillespie.

Among the many autumn openings of organizations and schools, there are the parties to welcome newcomers to our community. On Wednesday afternoon the Mt. Hermon Women's Guild via its friendship committee gave a tea at the home of Mrs. Arthur Platt for the new members of staff and faculty. Friends from both sides of the river attended.

Often, after Oct. 1st, there are three engagements an evening. And yet summer residents continue to ask the silly question, "What do you do here in winter?" They imply we are bears, instead of men, hibernating.

Rev. Harold Smock of South Hadley Methodist church officiated at the funeral of Mrs. Nellie O. Bigelow on Monday. The bearers were Russell and Harold Bigelow, sons of Harold Bigelow, Sr., Vernell Bigelow, Jr., Arthur Bigelow, Wesley Bigelow and Ralph Graham.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Van Pearson of Saudi Arabia have been staying at The Northfield Hotel. Their daughter Jean, who has studied in Switzerland, entered the freshman year of The Northfield School for Girls this fall.

There are three boys from Saudi Arabia who have entered Mt. Hermon school.

Daniel Sutherland observed his 81st birthday with messages and cards from many friends and telephone calls from his son Donald in Wilmington, Del., his daughter, Isobel Clark in Binghamton, N. Y., and his grandson, Edward Clark in Oneonta, N. Y.

Local "hot-rodgers" may be under much closer surveillance than they realize. This was made clear at the well-attended public meeting of the Northfield Civil Council recently when Wallace E. Stange, chairman of the selectmen, stated that any citizen should feel free to call any of the selectmen or any of the local constables, at any time of night, when cars are being raced on Northfield streets or nearby roads. A number of irate citizens told of instances of such recklessness, including a race down Main street at 2:40 last Sunday morning. Although there will be no delay in bringing offenders to court when justified, Mr. Stange pointed out that no court action is required to have a driver's license suspended for six months on his recommendation, as at least one local youth can testify. Most of those present were amazed to learn how much time local officials have devoted to this problem and how many early hours they have spent in their cars checking on speedsters.

Adelen Addison who has rocketed to fame since she sang in Sage chapel, accompanied by Miss Gloria Savcheff (Mrs. Eugene Gancarz) will appear this season in a revival of Puccini's "Turandot."

Guests of Miss Ethel Wooster this week, on the Second Ridge, have been Miss Isabel Clark of Claremont, Calif., who is a retired professor from Grinnell college, and Miss Marian Kinley of Sunny Shores, St. Petersburg, Fla.

Wednesday afternoon Charles Leach, local artist, appeared on the TV program, "At Home with Kitty." He showed four of his paintings and answered questions about his artistic career.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hafner leave their Northfield home for their new residence in Florida on Monday and their many friends hope they will keep their promise "to come back to Northfield some day."

Officers of the Unitarian Youth group are: president, Russell Reed; vice president, Robert Williams; secretary, Eunice Stafford; treasurer, Betty Ware.

Miss Hortense Zimmermann of Brooklyn is visiting Mr. and Mrs. David Hammond. Her niece, the cousin of David Hammond, Helen Ropes Dodge, came here with her husband, William Dodge, for a brief visit. Mrs. Dodge's father, Lawrence Ropes, still owns a home on The Ridge here, and Helen attended the public schools here after the death of her mother, Adele Zimmermann Ropes.

Susan Hammond found a weather balloon near the Hammond home on Aldrich street in East Northfield. It has been up 16 miles. After filling out the scientific data she mailed it to the weather bureau.

Mrs. Wynne Keever flew to Wayne, Penn., Thursday to be with her sister, Mrs. Joseph Fronfield.

Cortland R. Finch spent a few days with his daughter, Mrs. Milton H. Flocken, of 492 Westphal Ave., Columbus, Ohio. Mrs. Flocken is the former Arline Finch. Her husband is seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Callahan who recently bought the Jones house, off Highland avenue, Wednesday evening entertained seventy friends at a picnic supper. The group was the Pioneer Valley Union Teachers' association.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Stacy and daughter Rita are visiting her mother in Kentucky.

Mrs. Fred Reed fractured her hip and is in the Brattleboro hospital. Mr. Reed is confined to his home with gripe. His daughters, Miss Vera Vaughn and Mrs. Evelyn Murray are caring for him.

In a recent meeting with the selectmen Tree Warden Joseph Bilmon emphasized the importance of quick action in fighting the Dutch Elm disease. In 1956 there were 132 trees taken down and this year 117 have been found defective. Many of these old friends are historic landmarks and their passing is a shock to the community.

Benefit Food Sale
Saturday, Oct. 5, there will be a sale of home-baked cakes and cookies, sandwiches and apples on the Powell lawn. The buyers will be students, faculty and staff of The Northfield School for Girls and the donors of food will be members of the Franklin County Northfield club (alumnae) and the mothers of girls who have been students at the school, but who did not attend themselves. "Buyers" may picnic on the lawn. One-half the proceeds goes to the Students' Aid society fund and one-half to the Franklin County club gift to The Northfield School for Girls. Hence, the sale is a 100 per cent school benefit. In case of rain the sale will be held on the porch.

Mrs. David Burnham, president of the Franklin County Northfield club, Mrs. Roger Greenwood, representing the directors of the Students' Aid, and Mrs. E. M. Powell, who is also a director, and Miss Shirley Kelley, who will again have charge of the current students, town girls, who will do the selling, make up the committee.

"Far from the Madding Crowd."

at Laurel Lake (near Irving) there have been about 30,000 people who have come for the ideal swimming and for the picnic facilities which provide 145 tables and 75 fireplaces. 2,200 men, women and children visited the place in one day coming at 8 a.m. and leaving at 9 p.m. Plans are being developed to enlarge the state park carrying the picnic area further west. Especially popular with summer residents, some of whom visit Laurel Lake daily, the spot is only nine miles from Northfield, although families this summer have been coming from as far away as Hartford, Conn. The summer season ends Oct. 15, so two colorful weekends remain in which we can enjoy this lake-on-a-hill.

Oct. 1 the Women's Service Guild of Mt. Hermon church held the first regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Howard L. Rubendal. The speaker was Mrs. Jean Evans Coff and her subject, "Story of Our Hymns." On the committee were Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Burnham, Mrs. Jeff Baker and Miss Peterson.

Oct. 3 the Friendly Service group of the Trinitarian Congregational church started its sewing at 10 a.m. Lunch was brought by each member, but coffee was provided at 12:30.

We are informed via Wayne Smith that "Northfield Singers Lend Voices to Keene Group" and that "Northfield, where music has a place second only to religion, has contributed heavily to the barbershop chorus with the long name SPEBSQSA." We learn further that Ray Thompson is treasurer of the Keene group. Minstrel show promoters take note.

Rev. Joseph W. Reeves climbed Mt. Grace Friday with the junior Sunday school and climbed Monadnock Sunday with the Pilgrim Fellowship.

Gordon Loos of Philadelphia and Princeton spent the weekend with his aunt, Mrs. George Moody, in Springfield and visited his uncle, Gordon Moody, Tuesday and Wednesday here.

Mt. Hermon has a very exciting weekend coming up. At 9 a.m. Saturday the trustees of the Northfield schools meet in the faculty lounge of Beveridge hall.

Firemen Complete School Sessions

Our local fire department is a busy group. It completed the "school for firemen" sessions last Thursday evening and planned a celebration dinner to be held at Graves restaurant in Whately on Saturday, Oct. 12, when William Bennett will show a movie on forest fire organization. At the regular meeting, also held Thursday evening, the following committee was appointed to assist the standing committee and to make an effort to add new members to the firemen's group who are badly needed. Any men who are desirous of becoming firemen may call one of this committee: Philip Mann, chairman; Ellsworth Black, Paul Carpenter, who will report at the meeting to be held Oct. 17.

The Northfield department after a busy summer had only one call in the month of September—that a mutual aid call to stand by in Vernon.

The local department took part in the United Fund parade in Greenfield Sunday with Gardner Hudson, Floyd M. Dunnell, Vernon Taylor, Roger Holton and Jimmy Black, firemen, participating with the fire truck. Dunnell of the younger generation rode in the fire truck also.

Oct. 20 Northfield firemen together with men from Bernardston, Vernon, Gill and Conway will go to the Meadowood practice grounds at Fitzwilliam, N. H., on Route 12 for demonstrations and practice. Anyone who is interested in seeing the work done there may be there as that day. The Ladies' auxiliary of the Meadowood fire department department will sell lunch, hamburgers, hotdogs and coffee.

Deerfield Exhibition

The Deerfield Valley Art association will have its annual exhibition of paintings and crafts at the "Barn" at Deerfield academy Oct. 12 through 20—open each day from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. to the public.

A wide variety of paintings will be shown. The committee for hanging the show will be President Stephen Mainlaty, John B. Friend, Joseph J. Baker, Alvin G. Gebhardt, Philip D. Adams and Bernard T. Ethier.

The Boston authorities are at least thinking about Northfield and our traffic problem.

Monday this week first Selectman Wallace Stange met with Fred B. Dole, acting commissioner of the department of public works, and Bernard Twombly, traffic engineer for the department, in Boston.

As a result of that meeting, a letter was received here later in the week by Selectman Stange, stating in part:

The department will "give you every consideration" on the traffic problem at the corner of Main street and Warwick avenue, and "will install signs 'Cross Walk' or 'Slow Down' at or near the intersection" and will paint the cross walk.

The town is to contact Western Massachusetts Electric Co. and arrange to install brighter lights, and the "Traffic Division will make further study in regard to" whether it is felt essential to install a traffic light or whether a flashing beacon will be of assistance.

Having had the nasty experience of being nearly involved in a four-car crash last Saturday at Main street and Warwick avenue because some New York state driver was in a hurry, the publisher is apt to be a little irked about the matter, but we are hopeful that the department can take immediate steps to slow down the through traffic.

Time Out for Servicemen

Some folks think of servicemen every day. They are the families of sons, brothers, husbands and fathers who have left home for a while to serve as a wall of protection, here in the U. S. or in some far-distant flying field, fort or port. Many people never think of local servicemen except in October when radio and TV announce the "on or before" date for sending Christmas packages. The announcement is apt to go in one ear and out the other. Their attitude is "Oh let the families, or the church, or an organization like Northfield's Civic Council attend to them." There are two facts these nonchalant, unfriendly people overlook. They ignore the fact that we need a wall of protection, and that, if all our soldiers, sailors and marines were brought home, we would be gobbled up in short notice by the evil power which has bragged that it will dominate the world. It has been said of this historic era: "We celebrated the end of a war (Korean) which never ended, and the beginning of a peace which has never begun. Since then, the West has been fighting wars without winning them and Communism has been winning wars without fighting them." The second fact the negligent ones misunderstand is that letters from clubs, organizations and churches do not and cannot take the place of a longhand letter or card from a neighbor. One specific example of this truth can be cited from an experience Dr. Ansel B. True had. After 38 months service overseas during World War 11, among the first people he wanted most to see on returning home to Worcester were a minister who wrote him one longhand letter full of personal interest, and a butcher who wrote him a postcard.

The September 7 issue of "Presbyterian Life" has plenty to say on this subject and about a survey which shows that "We Presbyterians are seriously neglecting 100,000 of our most important members, the young men and women who are in military service." . . . the future of many a church. The title of the article is "Out of Sight, Out of Mind?" and opens with these lines: God and the soldier we adore In times of danger, not before. The danger passed and all things righted, God is forgotten, the soldier slighted.

James W. Hoffman based his article on a questionnaire sent out to 167 Presbyterian chaplains in the U.S.A. armed forces. The

Milton Flocken

Milton Flocken, age 31, died on Tuesday morning at St. Anthony's hospital in Columbus, Ohio, after a short illness. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Flocken of Wilbraham, Mass. A teacher of history and English at Columbus Junior college in Columbus, he had graduated from Wilbraham academy and had received his bachelor's and master's degrees at Wesleyan in Middletown Conn.

He married Arlene Finch of Northfield in 1946 and the family has lived at Greenwch, R. I., and Columbus. He leaves his wife, Arlene, and four children, Robert, Paul, Annette and Louis.

Funeral services were Thursday at 2:30 p.m. at the First Congregational church of Columbus, O., with Dr. Boynton C. Merrill officiating. There will be a memorial service at Wilbraham academy on Sunday at 3 p.m. conducted by Chaplain Rev. Frederick Strasburg of South church, Springfield. Interment will be at the Hillcrest Memorial Park cemetery, Springfield.

Mrs. Madeleine Chapin

Mrs. Madeleine (Peck) Chapin, 60, died suddenly in her home on Monday. She was born in Brooklyn, N. Y., daughter of Ola (Proudy) Peck and the late Edward Peck. She was a former resident of Bernardston and lived in Northfield for the past 17 years. She leaves her husband, Frederick Chapin; her mother, Mrs. Ola Perry, of Northfield; three sons, Charles E. of Deerfield, Sidney G. of Amherst and Robert R. of Ashburnham; two daughters, Mrs. Winifred Jeffery of Stoneham and Mrs. Patricia Perez of Westfield.

next article in the magazine has the title, "A California Congregation Remembers Its Servicemen," and was written by E. A. K. Hackett. A letter received by the minister of the San Marino church, Dr. Frederick W. Cropp, says, "Dear Church, Believe me it means a lot to know that somebody is thinking about us servicemen. With all the emphasis on a peacetime army and navy nobody is really interested in us. At least that is what I thought until I started to receive notes from the church. Then when you sent cookies it topped off everything. . . ." Dr. Cropp writes personally to each boy from his church.

A general survey of Northfield servicemen shows that the following are in the Atlantic A.P.O.: Barrows, 2 Cloughs, Farris, Griswold, Lopez, Shippa, Stultz, Summers and Walker. Dickinson Library Notes

Mrs. Florence Phelps, Librarian

Two important events in the lives of our citizens are being observed this week. It is Fire Prevention week. This fact is being well advertised on the radio and by programs by different organizations. The library is showing posters and pamphlets that should help each person stop and think how they can help in preventing fires. Also on the table is a book showing some of the old fire fighting equipment.

Columbus day falls on Saturday of this week, the 12th. The library will be closed all day Saturday in observance of the holiday. Any books that fall due on that day will automatically become due on the following Tuesday, Oct. 15.

On the peg-board this week are copies of famous paintings, depicting some of the great events in the making of America. "The landing of Christopher Columbus," "The discovery of the Mississippi River," "Westward the Course of Empire takes its way" and the "Signing of the Declaration of Independence."

The magazine, "American Heritage," is made available to our readers through the courtesy of Mrs. Joseph Reeves. Don't forget that we also have the monthly reports from the Consumers Union. These are available to readers on a two-week basis.

According to our statistics, the children have increased their reading habits in the past two months, over the same period of last year, while the adult readers fell below the last year's total.

Next week I hope to have an exhibit by one of our readers showing some of her work in art.

The monthly report of our public nurse, Mrs. Marian Billings, for the month of September shows a total of 78 calls: 4 preschool, 20 school children and 54 to adults. Four children were taken to the pediatric clinic in Greenfield for immunizations and one patient was admitted to the Franklin county public hospital. One child was given transportation to the crippled children's clinic. Six school age children attended the treatment center with Mr. Moeckler, P. T. in attendance.

James of Riverside, Gill, were married by Rev. Paul Chapman of All Souls church, Greenfield, who used the double ring service. The altar was decorated with baskets of white chrysanthemums and there were candles in the windows. The traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. L. Percy Goodspeed and the robed choir sang "O Perfect Love."

The bride, given away by her father, wore a white embossed nylon over taffeta ballerina length gown made by her mother. Her fingertip veil was attached to a pill box of lace trimmed with pearls and rhinestones. She carried a bouquet of button pompons with a white orchid center.

Richard James of Greenfield, brother of the groom, was best man and the ushers were Thomas Pollard of Colrain, cousin of the groom, and Philip Pelletier of Turners Falls.

A reception followed in the church vestry with the Evening Alliance in charge. The wedding cake was made and decorated by Mrs. Charles Leach as a gift to the bride. Miss Frances Towne, aunt of the bride, was in charge of the guest book, the wedding cake was cut by Miss Lois Stearns, cousin of the bride, and Miss Ruth Towne, aunt of the bride and Mrs. Dwight Stearns served at the punch bowl.

The mother of the bride wore a navy dress with white trim, navy accessories and a white pompon corsage. The mother of the groom wore a grey dress with pink accessories and a corsage of pink pompons.

For their honeymoon trip to the White Mountains Mrs. James wore a peacock blue knitted suit. The couple will be at home after Oct. 10 at 1 Parker avenue.

The bride is a graduate of the Northfield high school, 1956, and is secretary to Supt. F. Sumner Turner, school union No. 18.
